We Marylanders 6th Reunion - 1905

Dear Mrs. Bayes. I am the grandson of Rebecca Jane Fickle Lister. I remember her as she spent her declining years with her children and some of that time at our home when I was a child.

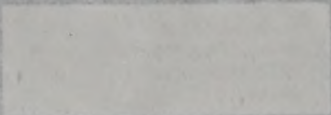

I am number six in a family of nine of Samuel F. and Ona Britton Lister. Seven girls and two boys. Our brother and one sister have passed on.

Our sister Beulah who has never married and another sister and I plan to travel to Maryland to see if we can find more about our Great Grandfather who came to Choptank area from England. Beulah has been compiling a family history for many years.

We know all of Grandmother, Rebecca James, children and their children. Some not too well but some very well. We probably can identify all in the picture and where their children are. Many are passed away.

We in no way would want to impose on any one or cause extra care but would like very much to get in touch with you in person when we come to Maryland the last of this month after the 13th. We would stay in a motel or hotel and if you time permits would be so glad to meet and exchange family information. We will bring the many pages we have so you can have a copy if you like.

We have wondered many times about Grandma Lister's family. we can remember

Dear Roena;

I was so happy and surprised to receive your lovely card and account of your many pleasant activities in 86. I hope you can enjoy many more.

I have had a very buisy year also. My wife Aileen died November 6 th, after fifty eight years of being together, the last twenty eight she had not been well and spent much time in Hospitals. She was a good wife and mother.

I went to our sons in Missouri soon after the funeral and on to our Daughters here in California for Thanksgiving and back to Dicks for Christmas of 85. Early in January I returned to Hillsdale and visited our Daughter Sylvia 30 miles north of Detroit. In early March I got Beulah at Jackson we visited our sister in GrandRapids and came on to Lockport Illinoise and after a couple of days with Gleadis we went on to Dicks at St.Charles missouri for 3 weeks.

I fully intended to find an apartment there and move to be close to Dick who is about half way between the two daughters. I decided because of insurance and many other things that I better stay in Michigan .In early April I again went to Sylvias and found a lovely one bedroom apartment and on June 14, 86, I moved to a completely new neighborhood. I immediately joined a Senior Citiczens group and have enjoyed their activities very much. We play cards, bingo, pool and other supervised activities. I havent been on any of their trips but expect too in this coming season when iI get back home about April 1 st.

Over the 4th. of July week end the DEcendants of my parents had a family get together at EagleHarbor Michigan where our oldest sister Velta has a summer home and most of us have visited many times. There were four of the children of our Parents there along with nieces, nephues and grandchildren, forty four in all, from 12 states, Europe and Israel. We spent three days together and re acquainted after not seeing many in years. Everyone provided their own livig arrangements. Many had campers, some stayed at Motels or Hotels. Our daughter and her husband at whose home I am now were there. Janet, ou daughter had come to Michigan the week before and we drove to the U.P. together with Beulah, stopping in Negaunee and getting our oldest sister Velta, who lives there and returning her after the 4th.

The last of July I went with a groupe from Hillsdale to Britian. We flew from Detroit to London and then a 12 day tour of England and Scotland. We were at Granton On Spa in northern Scotland on August 1st, My Granddaughter who grew up here in California and now lives in Aberdeen and her husband came and met me and we spent the evening and the next day together. On august 3rd. the groupe, me included, went to Edinburg where Lisa met me and we spent another day and evening together. She and her husband lived in Edinburgh four years.

Lisa, my Grandaughter met her husband while in college at Berkley. They were married in 1981. I was here for the wedding. I am proud to say I have attended each of my 11 grandchildrens high school graduations and each of the weddings of the nine weddings. I have 11 grandchildren and 10 greatgrand children to date. Three new ones in 1986.

In late September my Grandson Rick and I went to northern Michigan to one of Aileens sisters where he could hunt Bear. He didnt get one but we had a nice trip together. As we came toward home from the western part of the northern peninsula we stopped at Negaunee and got hot Pasties, went to sister Veltas and had lunch with her. Its aver 500 miles so an all day trip.

The last of October I went again with a groupe from Hillsdale to New-Zeland and Australia. WE flew from Detroit to Los Angeles, to Honolulu to Auckland where we stayed two nights toured the city and surrounding country side then to Rotura by buss for two nights. We then flew to the south island to MtCook and then by buss south and east through the beautiful mountais and countryside. We saw so many wonderful sights I would be unable to describe them. You would enjoy the many pictures and post cards which when I get hame and stay long enough will put in an album all about my 1986 trips.

I had been home only eight days when on November 15 I again flew to Dicks where I spent four weeks and on December 13 I came on here and plan to return to Missouri on February 28th, for two or three weeks, go by buss to Lockport Illinoise and visit Gleadis a couple of days. She has written that we can drive to Michigan. Her Granddaughter is with her and she drives. I am quite sure Gleadis wants to see our sister Neva who lives in Grand Rapids. Nava has had several strokes and is very ill so we visit her whenever possible. I am depended on to show the way around quite often

I havent made any plans for travels this year. Guess I better light for a while and get acquainted with my new neighborhood. I now live only six miles from Sylvia and less than two from her son Rick.

I have been so fortunate. I celebrated my 81st. birthday at Rotura NewZelnd!; Thanksgiving with my son and family in Missouri, Christmas with Janet and her family, including Lisa and her husband from Scotland and will plan to spend Easter with Sylvia and her family.

After a lovely tour of NewZeland we went to Australia with two nights in Sidney and two in Melbourn. We went to an island and saw the Penguins come from the ocean, across the beach to their roosting area which they do each night after feeding at sea during the day. We also toured Sidney harbor and the New Opera House as well as many other things of intrest.

I have truly had a wonderful 1986. Hope yours was as good.

Your letter went to Hillsdale was forwarded to my new address and Sylvia sent it on here to me. Thanks for thinking of me.

Dear Polna

This last day of March should be a good time to answer your nice letter.

It is sunny but windy here today with the temperature in the forties. Not too bad.

February has been a rather stressful month for me and also a busy one.

The hourly employees at the Medical Care Facility where my wife Aileen is a patient went on strike on February 1st so I brought her home to help relieve the Professional staff by easing their burdens some. She has to have quite complete care being able to feed herself is about all. On February 17th while walking on a hard floor her left hip broke and let her down. The ambulance took her to the Hospital here in Hillsdale and our family doctor put a plate and whatever was needed in and on March 7th she was returned to the Medical Care Facility. She is not at all alert and sometimes does not recognize me.

She is doing as well as can be expected and has the best of care. She may not last long.

On November 17th Beulah and I went to Gladwin at Lockport Ill. Beulah stayed there. I went on to Deck's, our sons, in St Charles Mo, on the 19th and on to Janet's, our daughter, in Calif. and returned December 12th after a lovely trip and visit including the wedding of a grandson who is Sylvia's, our other daughter, son and works as an Electrical Engineer for Hughes Aircraft the same as the two California grandsons and the son in Law do. Steve went there in '82 after graduating from M.I.T.

I spent Christmas with Beulah in Michigan and this year it will be with Dick in Meridian if all goes well. I try to spend every third year with each in turn.

Beulah had with her a "Round Robin" letter which she started in 1953. Gladis Beulah and I as well as a Niece who lives close to Gladis added a bit and I took it all to Dick where he and his daughter Barbara added some then I took it to Janet where she added some and when I got it all back here I typed, the hunt and peak method, all the hand written parts, along with answers to requests I sent out, and have had the whole thing copied, 23 pages, and stapled together so each who are still alive that has a letter ⁱⁿ now has or will have a copy of all. A brother and sister of our mother are no longer with us and our brother is gone but I find it most interesting to revive memories of thirty years ago.

As you know Beulah and Gladis have gotten quite a bit of information together on the Litter family. I start with a Zerosed copy of John Litters trial in London in 1770 where he and another man were sentenced to death for allegedly stealing a few items. John Litters death sentence was commuted in April 1770 and he was sent to America to help colonize. He was about 15 years old at the time. ~~His~~ We have no record of his marriage or death yet but his son Aaron Litter our great Grandfather we have records from Maryland of his marriage, his children, up through our present family.

I have put these together and had them Zerosed and although not complete it is fairly accurate up to 1984.

I plan to go to Dicks for Easter and around the last week in May to Sylvia's, her in Michigan, for a couple of days and I plan to be around home otherwise.

I am looking forward to seeing you when you come this way. Please let me know when and where you will be. I would like to spend a day at least showing you around Hillsdale and Hillsdale County if there are places you would like to see. My grandparents are buried near Romson in southern Hillsdale County. There are lots of places which you might be interested in, I love to show people around. If you would prefer you are welcome to ask your friends or relatives to go along. I would like to show you where I live and the "Round Robin" and family history. I tried to tell you about.

Unless something I don't know about comes up I will be free and happy to spend time getting acquainted and showing you whatever of this area you would like.

I will drive to Missouri and Beulah will go to Gladys for Easter. We will be gone only a week or ten days.

I hope all is well with all of you there and the terrible storm of this week hasn't treated you too badly.

Will be looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely

Dear Roenka.

I am sorry I missed you if you tried to get in touch while you were in this part of the country. I had looked forward to seeing you.

I went to our daughter Sylvia, North of Detroit the last week of June and just after the fourth I got Beulah at Jackson, we went to Gladice's at Lockport Ill, and the three of us to Eagle Harbor Mich, where Beulah is spending the summer with our oldest sister Velta. Gladice and I came back on Friday and I home on Saturday July 16.

Our son Dick and his wife Phyllis were here the week of the 18th of July.

On August 3rd I joined a bus load of people and we visited The Pocono Mountains ^{going + a day} a day, touring the mountains, a day in Philadelphia, a day in New York City and a day coming back to Hilldale. Last Sunday I went to Detroit to the ballgame a busload, Sept. 6-9 a bus trip to northern Michigan visiting The Painted Rocks at Munising and a day on Mackinac Island. On Sept. 15 I go to Sylvia's for a couple of days on an Sept 15 to Medaenbrook Hall at Rochester Mich. The Dodge Mansion for a day.

The Hellebals Fair is Sept. 25 to Oct. 1 and I work there selling tickets to the Grand stand.

Then October 12-14 another Bus trip to Williamsburg Va and the historic area around there.

So you see I do a lot of good thing around and it is hard to see why I am not home.

Let's try again, I hope it works out.

In appreciation of your giving me the original I am sending this reproduction of Grandmother Lister family. I had several copies made and am sending to some of my sisters and for our family history and the Lister Reunion records also.

I hope the summer is being good to you, Al and Mary too. Have a good year to all of you.

It is hot and muggy here as it has been for most of August. Hope it ends soon.

Again I am sorry to have missed you. We will just have to try again.

I will be going to Dick's, our son, in Missouri for Thanksgiving and to California next summer while our Granddaughter is home from Scotland.

Hope the picture will be a good addition to your family collection.

Sincerely

Dear Ervin,

A little over two months since I received your letter. I hope you will forgive me for not responding quickly. I do appreciate the picture as it is so much better than the one that I took of the picture of the Lister family. Thanks so much.

Inclosed are three pictures of which I have the originals. If you want the originals of these three I am willing to part with them. I do not have any one to pass them on to so feel that it is better to have them in the hands of the family that will appreciate them. Also I can send the negatives of ~~of~~ the prints inclosed. if any one is interested in having them. Could you identify the girl? I sort of thought it might be Amelia and then again perhaps Eliza-- so perhaps you can help.

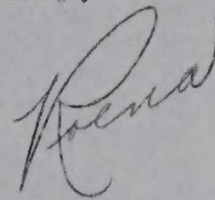

I can see that you had a busy summer and its continuing right into the fall. I'm sure that you will have a wonderful time in Williamsburg. I was there over Thanksgiving one year and it was a great experience. The day after Thanksgiving the decorations came down and the Christmas decorations began to go up. The big Christmas tree was brought in to the town square and all the shops began to decorate their windows. I would liked to have stayed till they were finished but was still working at that time so had to get back to NIH.

I'm sorry that I didn't get to see you but I think it was my fault, as I should have told you ahead of time by letter when I was going to be there. Sometimes it is hard to call when staying in some one elses home. Do you have restrictions when calls can come in at the residence where you live? It's a nice building and so very convenient to town.

My summer and fall have been rather busy. After returning from Ohio, I went to Seattle to the American Legion Convention in Seattle, Wash. and then five of us from our Post went to Vancouver and from there took the Sun Princess through the Inland waterways to Alaska. It was a really spectacular trip. Would liked to have stayed a bit longer at each port-of-call.

When I come home in the Spring I will contact you right away and then we'll have a few weeks to work out a time to meet. Really look forward to talking with you again.

Happy Thanksgiving to you and your family,

Dear Rosna.

Thanks for the picture which you brought while I was away. I am sorry I missed you. It would have been nice to see you again and have a visit.

I am sorry a funeral had to be to bring you to Michigan. Hope the trip was pleasant otherwise. I was at our daughter's.

Last Sunday was our annual Sister Reunion. There aren't many of my generation who are around any more. Beulah came along with a son of our sister Doris. He Bill Burt lives near Lansing and stopped for Beulah at Jackson. I took two cousins from here in Hillsdale. They could identify all in the picture as Beulah & I could.

Yesterday I took the picture to the photographer to have copies made. I then realized I had not even offered to pay for the copy you had made and gave to me when there as I had asked. I am inclosing my check for $7.00 which is what the first copy charge is here.

If this is not enough I will gladly send you the balance. I am sorry I did not remember when we were there. I had no intention of leaving without paying as I said when I asked for the picture.

I am having several copies made by the same people who made the picture of the threshing crew. I know all of my family will want one and already the daughter Ethel Schorp, a daughter of Eliza Kieck, has ordered one from the photographer. I had told them at the reunion where they could get copies. Wilma had gotten to the photographer & took the picture in.

Aylva, our daughter, her husband & I went to Canada for a day when I was there. We visited a museum where I saw many things which were common in my youth.

Our son Dick and his wife will be here for two weeks on their annual vacation. They have a camper and see many places on their three weeks each summer.

There is a big carnival affair on the Fair Grounds here in Hillsdale last year on the 4th. It is in full swing today through Monday. I will let others participate.

Again thanks for bringing the pictures. I will return Beulah's to her and I am sorry I forgot to reimburse you.

Hello and good health to Ray & Mary and you. Have a nice summer.

Ervin.

Dear Roena I will answer your nice letter and try to answer some of your questions and probably raise many more. The enclosed information I copied from information Beulah sent me and I am writing what I know about the Lists.

Gladis plans our traveling itinerary and I only know we plan to start from here, Hillsdale, on May 30th. We will drive about four hundred miles and stay over night. Our Maryland destination is Denton. Beulah, in her search for information on our Great ^{Great} Grandfather List's indenture here from England has information indicating that the records are there in a courthouse I believe. That is our goal.

We are not at all acquainted so will need to find our way. Gladis belongs to AAA, so will have their routing to go by. I will let you know as near as possible when we can call on you nice people. Gladis and Beulah have both written they are anxious to meet and exchange information.

I have a picture of our, the Sam List's family taken about 1915 and one taken last Christmas by my daughter Janet and her family which I am having copies made to bring for you. Would it be possible for me to have a copy of Grandma List's family? I will gladly pay the cost. We will bring other family information also.

He is a retired minister living in Florida.

Lyleia Lister married Durrell Fowler
They raised one daughter Flossie. I do not know Flossie's address or any of her children. She has several. I do believe Beulah has her address and if not Florence Shanour might. It is available I know.

This information and addresses are about cousins I have known most of my life. We, most of us, prayed together as children and visited back and forth.

I asked none of them about giving you this information but have no objections at all in your telling them I gave you their names and addresses.

In the case of Mrs. Caywood her mother's father, Barry Britton, and my mother were nephew and sister. She married Eliya Keck's son Lloyd. I know they have much family history on the Lister side and I am sure they will be happy to know of Grandmother Lister family.

I remember my parents talking about the Cousins Towers. They visited some and attended the Fickle Wainick reunion.

I heard John & Eddie Fowler's names mentioned many times but I did not know any of them. Sophia Bear might know about them as she grew up and now lives quite close to the neighborhood where I believe they lived.

I am happy to have directions to your home. I have been to Gettysburg and am sure I can find the way.

Would you have reason to go to Denton Md.? we have room.

I will visit Gladis and Beulah and if I can give you more specific details your traveling plans I will.

Gladis lives in Lockport Ill. near Joliet. Her daughter and family will bring her here the 29th and I will get Beulah at Jackson and we will leave from here the morning of the 30th.

I think we can be close to Gettysburg in two days. Will see.

Looking forward to seeing you all

Your Cousin

"WE MARYLANDERS"

This from the West Unity Ohio Reporter, the August 28, 1907 issue:

WE MARYLANDERS REUNION

This organizations members are the lineal descendants by blood and marriage ties, of a little colony of friends who left Caroline County of the Eastern shores of Maryland in the Spring of 1826 and under the guidance of Uncle John Warren (note: your great-great-great-great-grandfather) wended their slow way over the Blue Mountain passes and over the Ohio River and settled in Pickaway County. From there, some of them came here (Williams County) and built homes and cleared up farms and later some went on to Hillsdale County, Michigan.

NOTE: Ella Doughten said that her mother Rhoda Warren walked all the way on this trip. Rhoda Warren Hamet would be a sister to Nancy Warren Lister, your great-great-great-grandmother.

A August 25, 1920 letter in the West Unity Reporter from Solomon S. Warren (William H. Warren's son) speaks of a trip to Denton and Easton, Caroline County, Maryland, where his father was born 112 years ago.

Dear Poena.

Your nice letter came yesterday and I don't know whether this can get to you before you leave for Ohio or not.

Our son Dick and his wife will be in Michigan the week of the 18th and I will be going with them to our daughter, Sylvia, north of Detroit and I don't know just which days.

I miss or now plan to be around home at other times and hope we can get together. It would be nice if you could meet Dick & Phyl too. They have three weeks vacation and go places with their camper behind their car.

The photographer who does my reproductions is Jack Hall and he has a studio set at his home south of Hillsdale on N. Hillsdale Road. His sign is near the road and the address is 234 N. Hillsdale Rd. Hillsdale MI 49242 - Phone 517-437-2188. Closed Thursdays. Hours 10:00 AM to 5:00 PM.

He is a real professional, none better.

I hope we can coordinate our efforts.

Sincerely your cousin Eivin.

see how a licensed psychologist would deal with that situation.

My own inclination, if I'm bigger, is to pick up a child or a cocktail guest and shake him or her until his or her teeth rattle.

After all, most of the circumstances we are likely to encounter throughout life are "beyond our control," aren't they? I say the sooner a person starts learning to handle them without flying off the handle, the better.

As for the second point raised by the blurb, if we can't be frustrated with ourselves, who can we be frustrated with?

Debt deal is elusive

By JIM KUHNHENN
and LAURIE KELLMAN
Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — Grasping for a deal on the nation's debt, President Barack Obama and congressional leaders remained divided Sunday over the size and the components of a plan to reduce long term deficits. Saying "we need to" work out an agreement over the next 10 days, the president and lawmakers agreed to meet again today.

Obama also sought to use the power of his office to sway public opinion, scheduling a news conference for this morning, his second one in less than two weeks devoted primarily to the debt talks.

Officials familiar with the meeting said Obama pressed the eight House and Senate leaders Sunday evening to continue aiming for a massive $4 trillion deal for reducing the debt.

But there appeared to be little appetite for such an ambitious plan and the political price it would require to pass in Congress. Instead, House Speaker John Boehner told the group that a smaller package of about $2 trillion to $2.4 trillion was more realistic.

Career Navy man tell

"Having the good support of your wife and family is what makes a career in the service work," retired Master Chief Jon Ely told the Bryan Rotary Club during its Friday meeting.

Ely, a native of Bryan, joined the Navy in the spring of 1977 as a part of the delayed entry program. He graduated from high school, spent the summer at the lake, and in September entered boot camp at the Recruit Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Ely said he was inspired to join by his father, Ralph Ely, who had served in the Navy during World War II.

When he graduated from boot camp, he was sent to Florida's Cecil Field. There, he was trained on flight simulator devices. It was this experience that made him decide he wanted to work on aircraft, rather than fly them.

His A School training was at Milington, Tenn., where he learned to repair and maintain safety equipment on aircraft. His first tour followed at Patuxent River, Maryland. The focus of his duties included working on safety equipment for four different aircraft.

After his four years of service, he left the Navy and returned to Bryan where he went to work at Ann Furniture. It was during this time he met his future wife. He also decided the Navy was where he really wanted to spend his career.

His proposal to Lori Wheeler, of Edgerton, was simple. "If you're in Norfolk when the ship pulls in, we'll get married," he recalled for the Rotarians. "If you're not, we won't."

Ely was aboard the USS America aircraft when it arrived at Norfolk on June 2, 1983, and Lori was there to greet him. They were married on June 11, 1983, by the Rev. Ed Auchard. The couple packed up their belongings into a van and moved to Jacksonville, Fla.

Ely was then deployed and Lori was left to manage on her own. She did and he was deployed to the Gulf of Sidra to deal with Momar Kadafi in Libya.

While he was at sea his daughter, Megan, was born. She was 2 months old when he first saw her.

on safety equipment for four different aircraft.

After his four years of service, he left the Navy and returned to Bryan where he went to work at Ann Furniture. It was during this time he met his future wife. He also decided the Navy was where he really wanted to spend his career.

His proposal to Lori Wheeler, of Edgerton, was simple. "If you're in Norfolk when the ship pulls in, we'll get married," he recalled for the Rotarians. "If you're not, we won't."

Ely was aboard the USS America aircraft when it arrived at Norfolk on June 2, 1983, and Lori was there to greet him. They were married on June 11, 1983, by the Rev. Ed Auchard. The couple packed up their belongings into a van and moved to Jacksonville, Fla.

Ely was then deployed and Lori was left to manage on her own. She did and he was deployed to the Gulf of Sidra to deal with Momar Kadafi in Libya.

While he was at sea his daughter, Megan, was born. She was 2 months old when he first saw her.

During his career he participated in the "Sailor of the Year" contest. He won the squadron contest, the wing contest and then the regional contest. He worked his way through the various levels of the contest until he was one of five to compete in Washington, D.C., where he didn't win.

Ely said he was trying to understand why he kept winning the various contests and a Master Chief told him it was because his answers weren't "canned" answers.

The contest gave his career a boost and he eventually became a chief while serving on the USS Enterprise during Desert Fox. There was quite an initiation process and he was required to live with the Master Chiefs. Ely noted that when he became a chief he finally out-ranked his father.

He again was aboard the USS America during the Persian Gulf War when his second daughter, Malorie, was born. He again came home to a 2-month-old child.

Ely talked about his travels around the world with the Navy. One of his stops was in Israel where he filled a bottle with water from the River Jordan. He brought this bottle back with him and Rev. Auchard baptized Malorie with the water from the Holy Land.

In 1997, Ely became a master chief and his last assignment was NAMTRAU, in Norfolk. He said this was similar to being the principal at a school and it was his most enjoyable job. Ely retired in 2004 and returned to Bryan with his family to live.

Ely spoke as the guest of Renee Isaac.

Sing a new song

The Bible tells us that when God created the heavens and the earth, "the morning stars sang to God and the sons of God shouted for joy." "The music of the spheres" is older than humanity. In ancient geological ages, dawn was greeted by bird song. Song and musical instruments are as old as human history.

In the rural Kansas of my boyhood the great cultural event of the summer was the Saturday night band concert in the bandstand in "downtown" Randolph where farmers and their wives and local citizens gathered to shop and visit.

My mother's interest in clasin the forward of some Psalms in the Hebrew Bible — has overshadowed the majestic organ.

I can praise God in the company of fellow Christians in cathedrals or on a Street corner, in the Latin Mass or traditional Protestant worship. I am glad for the vast variety of praise that the Christian faith has nurtured across the centuries and around the world. In Istanbul, I visited a mosque, praying to "the one God and Father of us all who is above all and through all and in all."

A Pleasant Reunion.

"We Marylanders" held our sixth annual reunion, last Wednesday, at the pleasant home of J. F. Hamet, in south Brady, and notwithstanding the uncertain and threatening weather which preceded, we had a glad some gathering of about one hundred thirty people, ranging in age from the first year of their life to the eighty-seventh.

Several families from Michigan were kept away by the funeral of an old and popular neighbor occurring that day, while others were detained by sickness and other causes, making the attendance fall below that of the past two years.

We met on a farm suggestive of reminiscences. It was entered by Solomon Warren, a Marylander, nearly seventy years ago, and has been ever since and now is owned by his kith and kin. He built the cabin in which he died on the spot upon which our ample tables were placed and upon which our exercises were held. After his death his sister, Mrs. Rhoda Hamet, and her husband John Hamet, bought it, and their son now owns it. Here Aunt Rhoda lived and died, and all about us were reminders of her well-remembered love and life.

Adjoining and in sight were the old home farms of Tighlman Vaus and of Emery Towers, each of whom were patriarchal Marylanders.

To all these things were added the well-known, kind-hearted, open-handed Frank and Rachel and their trio of daughters and two sons as hosts, a very beautiful, pure-aired day and the presence of ourselves and a few visitors to make it a jolly good time.

And then the presence of Miss Eva Warren, of Galesburg, Ills.,—the only child of Ovid F. Warren, who as "Tobe" was a universal favorite roundabout years ago—shaking hands and making acquaintance with numerous hitherto unknown cousins, second cousins, and forty-second cousins, was neither the last nor the lowest of our joy-producing elements.

She is more or less related to most of those who were present, not only as the daughter of the son of a Marylander, but also because her mother's grandfather, James Warren, was of the original colony and a cousin of William, John and Solomon Warren, Mrs. Aaron Lister, Mrs. John Hamet, Tighlman Vaus, etc.

No shrunken appetites were developed at the dinner hour, and Ohio vlands and Michigan mixtures were so profusely intermingled that no one could tell to other from which, and it was a happy refreshment time.

A "mighty" interesting game of base ball, to those who played, was enacted on an improvised diamond in the old meadow where Harwood's cabin stood in the early fifties. In this game Peter Warren failed to make the first base and J. F. Hamet to touch the ball, but Eugene Duroy, with better luck and less skill, scored once and stole three bases on another point.

After awhile the meeting came to order (of a kind), and the president, J. F. Hamet, voiced a welcome. Rev. Beard a prayer, and several very appropriate songs were sung, especially "My Wandering Boy," by J. F. Hamet and his daughters.

The secretary reported for the past year one marriage, in Ohio, three deaths, two in Ohio and one in Michigan, and five births, four in Ohio, and one in California. There were also two births in Michigan which had not been reported to the secretary, the parents not being present at this year's reunion.

The president read a poem originally composed by Mrs. Sarah Mills, of Hillsdale, Mich., in memory of Mrs. Amanda Mattoon, but which was slightly altered to include the other members who died during the year, one of whom was Mrs. Mills' daughter, Mrs. Myrta Bates, who died just two weeks before the reunion. (1905)

Rev. Beard gave an interesting talk, expressing his appreciation of the pleasures of a family reunion. Peter Warren told of the aforementioned things that made this ground an appropriate place for our meeting. Several recitations were given by the wee folks present.

After determining to meet the third Wednesday of next August, Providence permitting, at the home of Mrs.

Jane Lister of Hillsdale county, Mich., and resolving to buy canvas or tent for use at our future reunions, for which purpose the hat was passed, the formal meeting was adjourned and visiting renewed.

Obituary

Mary Fickle, daughter of Isaac and Nancy Fickle was born in Crawford county, Ohio, Aug. 19, 1833 and departed this life at her home in Amboy township, Mich., July 3, 1916, aged 82 years, 10 months and 14 days.

She was married to John P. Vaus, April 22, 1855 and to this union were born three daughters. She was converted to Christ in the year 1860 at the Bunker Hill church, Williams county under the labors of Rev. Jas. Nell and joined the Church of God at that place and has always been a cheerful and willing worker; never shrinking from duty, always doing what she could until the Master said, it's enough, come unto me. She will be missed by the church but not forgotten, for lives such as hers cannot go out with the call of death, but live on in the hearts and memories of those who loved her.

She was a loving wife and kind mother and a good neighbor. She leaves to mourn their loss, three daughters, Amella, Elizabeth and Etta; sixteen grandchildren and eight great grandchildren; one aged brother Wm. Fickle of Blue Lake, Cal., one sister, Mrs. Eddy Towers of Amboy and a host of nieces, nephews and friends.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. John Clark assisted by Rev. Slough.

Those from a distance to attend the funeral services were George and Frank Beerbower and wives, Alpha Beerbower, Granger Kimmel and wife Mrs. Ida Lord, Mrs. Cassie Cullor, Lolo Ensign and Miss Blosser, of Farmer Center, Ohio; Frank Hamet and wife, Cash Martin and wife and Mrs. Ella Doughton of Stryker; Emanuel and Oscar Starr and wives, Ray Warren, Mrs. P. OBITUARY

1856—Amelia Alsines Crommer—1930

Amelia Alsines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Vaus was born in Williams county, near Stryker, Ohio, on February 16, 1856 and departed from this life on the fifth day of April 1930 to go to live with her Master, at the age of 74 years, one month and 19 days.

On October 25, 1874 she was united in marriage to Charles Henry Crommer and to this union was born four sons and two daughters, one son Johnnie M. who preceded her in his infancy.

Some 40 years ago she was converted and fellowshiped with the Amboy church of God and rendered faithful service to her Master and church while permitted to remain here on earth. She was heard to say just of few days before she fell asleep, "that she had been on the solid rock for more than 40 years, and if she had 40 more to live it would be on that rock Christ Jesus." To know her was to love her.

She with her husband took a motherless girl (Mable Beerbower) into their home and reared her to womanhood. She has been almost a constant sufferer for the last 10 years but she bore it all with patience trusting in her Savior.

Those who mourn her departure, husband, three sons Charles B., David O. and Melvin J. all of and near Pioneer, two daughters, Mrs. Cora E. Simonds and Mrs. Mary J. Lonabarger of Pioneer, one foster daughter, Mrs. Mable Gee of near Pioneer, eight grand-children, one sister Mrs. Etta Hillard of near Pioneer and a host of other relatives and friends. The many neighbors and friends sympathize with husband and children in this sad-hour of bereavement.

Mother you are sweetly resting,
Whilst we are left to mourn,
You have put your trust in Jesus,
And your work on earth is done.
You have gone to join the angels,
And we hope to meet you there
When we too shall cross the river,
To that city bright and fair.

Services were held from the U. B. church, Pioneer, Ohio, April 7, 1930, conducted by Rev. J. F. Slough assisted by Rev. Strawn and her remains laid at rest in Evergreen cemetery.

Card of Thanks

It is with heartfelt appreciation that we wish to thank the many friends and neighbors for their sympathy and assistance during the illness and at time of death and burial of our dear wife and mother. For the beautiful floral tributes, the comforting word of the ministers and choir for their services. Words here cannot express our thankfulness and our prayer is that the Master may reward you all.

Believe Tillman's parents (Sarah) Eliz. Warren, (da. of Solomon Warren) and John Vaus.

S. Eliz's parents Solomon & Mary Tilghman Warren both born Caroline Co. MD. Tilghman Vaus named his first child John (Prettyman) Vaus. The Prettyman family came from Caroline Co. MD. also but I can't find the connection yet. Perhaps Elizabeth Towers Vaus' mother's maiden name was Prettyman???

Vaus

Tilghman's/obituary says he was born in Maryland, Delaware Co., of poor parents whose local institutions forbade the poor to reside there. He removed in 1828 to Pickaway Co., Oh, etc.

There is no Alabama Co in Md.

Mrs. Ely said Mr. Lister told of a book called "We Marylanders" by Barryan

Tree that was supposed to tell all about the poor farm families of Caroline Co., MD. but the Ft. Wayne library doesn't have it and I haven't heard from the Maryland Archives. Check Md. State Records for this book -

I figure the Vaus, Towers, Tilghman, Warren and Prettyman families all lived in the same area but since they were poor perhaps didn't own land. They seemed to acquire what wealth they did have after moving to Ohio.

I'm interested in finding out when and where these families came from when they arrived in Caroline Co., MD.

Who were Elizabeth Towers Vaus' parents?

Was John Vaus, Tillman's father? Who was Tillman's mother?

Who were Solomon Warren's parents?

Who were Mary Tilghman's parents?

16 Nov. 1982

Dear Roena:

I should be getting supper on the table but will drop you a quick note with information I have on John Youse my newly found relative.

of the 2nd class
He was a private in the Sixth Company/(Captain not stated) Eighth Battalion Cumberland Co. The information is from Vol. 5 under Cumberland County Muster Rolls on Page 586 & 7.

On the DAR papers it says this battalion performed a tour of duty in Kishocanguillis Valley for the year 1782 under Col. Alexander Brown.

I have conflicting information about his birth dates. Belle Yous Jackson Natl. # 213577 was his great granddaughter and she says "family history available says that John Youse was born in Germany Oct. 16, 1740 and that he came to this country in 1756 at sixteen years of age."

Information I received from Harold Shuck of Waynesboro comes from the original Yous family bible that I am enclosing information from. I would believe it to be more correct and doubt that Belle ever saw it as it has been in the Shuck family all these years.

If you have time I'd sure appreciate anything you can do for me about checking on this man.

My newfound relative, Jacob who I believe to be the father of my Jacob died in 1822. I believe I will find that he served in the War of 1812 when I have a time to check it out. It wouldn't give me any helpful information about Sarah Lorah though as she would only have been 12 years old then.

I haven't heard a thing about the patent land records for the Fickles yet.

Must get supper - all for now.

Happy Thanksgiving.

Dear Jacques,

Just a short note - But am sending along a document that will prove Benjamin Fickle was in Muskingum Co by the 17th of Sept. 1805.

I don't have a copy of these tax lists but at the National Archives I found,

"Index to Ohio Tax Lists" 1800-1810 by Vern Jackson, Gary Ronald Tuples & David Schaffermeyer.

Fickle, Benjamin	003	Salem Twp T ^x 1807	Muskingum Co
"	010	Newton Twp T ^x 1808	" "
"	"	"	" 1808 "
"	010	"	" " 1808 Franklin
"	"	—	—

I pulled the Civil War Pension Record of Michael Fickle from Montpelier, have enclosed them and family sheets on both he & his parents. His father was also Michael. All this makes it seem more & more likely that they are descendants of Michael & Margaret. I sent for the "Hist of the Slaymaker Family".

all for now — Will see you at ?

Dear Roena:

I've been trying to prove all my ancestors back as early as possible for the First Families of Williams County and am having trouble having the chairman accept Nancy Young Fickle as being here in 1834 with her husband.

She won't accept the 1840 census as says I need proof that she was married to Isaac then. I thought I had a marriage certificate for them that you had given me but can't find one. Did you ever have one? Or any proof of their marriage before 1850?

I was going to write Marion Co., OH for proof of their marriage as I see that is where you said they were married but decided to try you first in case you have something.

The chairman has accepted Isaac as 1834 and Phebe and Benj. as 1839 but Nancy as 1850.

Glad to hear you visited Mrs. Ely in Bryan. I ran into her at the Bryan library last week and she said you'd stopped in. She has an address of a man in Toledo that is supposed to have info on the Vaus, Towers, etc. families from Maryland and she was going to write him. When we discovered each others mutual interest I went over and she told me of a supposedly book called "We Marylanders" by Barryn Tree. I could hardly wait to get to Ft. Wayne to get the book but when I got there they had never heard of it nor could I find the author mentioned anywhere. Then Pam Lash, our WCGS newsletter editor, told me she has seen that title mentioned in the old Bryan newspapers and believes it is just the name of a group. The man that gave Mrs. Ely the info, though, said he had seen the book once but doesn't remember where he saw it - isn't that great - Ha. I had thought it too easy to find a book with all the families written up in it.

I did spend time one trip to Ft. Wayne on the Vaus and Maryland info but found nothing. I did write the Maryland archives about 6 months ago asking about the book but nothing yet.

I finally got around to sending in my Fickle supplemental but it will be another year probably before it goes through. I have 2 more Snow & Simonds that just need proof for the last generation. I have all the names and dates, etc. but can't find a will or any document stating Elijah Snow, Sr. had a son Isaac or that Judah Simonds had a son Martin. The Snows are from NY state and Simonds from Mass. SOMEDAY I'll get out there where I can really check things out.

I'm sending a dollar to cover cost of any documents you might have to help me prove Nancy's marriage date. All for now.

Sincerely,

Jacqueline

Dear Jacque,

Nice to hear from you and see that you are moving right along with your research. I have been going to write to you for a few weeks now but haven't gotten around to it. Guess I just needed the encouragement from you to get busy. I am enclosing the marriage record of Isaac H. and Nancy Young. This should take care of the evidence you need to prove that Isaac H. & Nancy lived in Ohio long before 1840.

I enjoyed so much my afternoon with Normagene Ely when I was in Ohio. I wonder if she has ever found out where Nancy w/o Isaac H. was buried. She mentioned a minister by the name of Lister in Bryan and she believes that he knows where she was buried. Also another family member believes that ~~they~~ ~~was~~ she was not buried in the six corner cem. with Isaac H. This is very puzzling to me. According to family records her last place of residence was Hicksville. Since her death record says 15 Sept. 1895, I wonder if there is a Hicksville paper at that time that would have an obit or death notice or a funeral dir. record.

Not too long ago I read somewhere about a William Young of Crawford Co. and so I decided to make an educated guess from the information that I had about Nancy and since it said that ole man Williams had given each of his sons a hundred sixty acres of land, it was probable that he had a will if he owned that much. So I put down the facts that I knew and ~~thought~~ it would be a good idea to take a chance and see if he was the father of Nancy. When I received a copy of the will it contained more info than I could hope for. So-----

Father: William YOUNG

Mother: Mary

He died between 22 Oct. 1839 and 3 June 1840.

He owned land in Henry County as well as Crawford since he left that land to his grandchildren. 80A. The grandson's name is William Burns and the granddaughter Mary Burns F~~la~~ahh-baugh.

There are seven pages including will and other pertinent information. Would you like a copy of this? I have been going to abstract it but have not done it yet. or I would send it along.

Hope to hear from you again. If some of you want to come down and go to the Archives or other libraries in the area you could all stay here and we could all go down together. Is anyone from the area coming for the DAR Congress?

Noe it's time to check the land records and see if any of them indicate where the Williams came from in PA. If you see any leads let me know.

Rend

I didn't find anymore Fickles mentioned clear through 1863 but from your records it looks like they moved away by late 1850's.

This will give you something to think about - Ha.

On another note - have you ever heard of Mary Mann from the Farmer-Williams Center area. After checking through the Dickerhoff info I had that I was searching for for a lady I see that Daniel Dickerhoff had a sister Mary Mann. The lady said she thought Mary had grandchild living in the West Unity area now but didn't know their names. Being from that area I just thought you might have know of her.

I must get busy. Whenever I get a chance (and a car - our one is in the repair shop) I will check through the Defiance Co. census records for Fickles and Young.

It's a beautiful day here and will be a nice day for a baseball game that we will go to at 5:00 to watch the boys play.

You probably hadn't heard that Mr. Harrington that lives beside Anna died last week. I was told he took his own life as he had cancer. But the family said he was getting along good. It is a shame.

All for now.

The books I looked through didn't give any details of the trial as it was only a receipt book showing that the witnesses had been paid to appear in court. I am anxious to try to check into why Phebe was taking her son to court. It had to be something to do with the way the estate was settled.

I can't figure out who Michael Fickle was. I don't find Michael anywhere but the man that you think is Benjamin's father and he was dead by then. Joseph was Isaac's brother I imagine.

Tilman (Tilghman) Voss (Vaus) was John Vaus's father or Mary (Fickle) Vaus' father-in-law.

Dear Jacque,

Thanks for the $'s and rather than send them back to you I will do a search for you at the Archives if you have something specific you would like to have done. Send me your request & I will see what I can do. When I get to Ohio again I will stop in Bucyrus and see if I can find more info from the land records. Perhaps some where it will give a clue as to where in PA they migrated from. All these females on my chart that I don't know their last names are getting pretty numerous.

I certainly don't envy you your task of answering those 40 letters of inquiry. That would take me forever as I'm certainly not a speedy one.

Wish we had a genealogical society around here. So far I have not been able to locate one. The NGS is moving to VA this month and it is just too far to go and return the same day. Ellen Beckman & I will try to find two days together so we can order our Civil War records or 1812 the first day & then go again the next day to look at them. I always run out of time at the archives and have the feeling that I have missed something.

So-- here is William Youngs will and a few other bits and pieces that the clerk picked out and sent along. She said she thought I might like to have the signatures. That's the reason I believe there are more records to be found as the estate was not really settled. The land records might have additional information. Wasn't it just great of her to pick out these other items and include them with the will. I'm going to send her a note and a buck for coffee. That's the oposite of having 40 unanswered requests piled up, isn't it? I thought it was really exceptional for her to do this extra bit.

Will try to get to the Post office with this today.

I know you're busy but hope we can get together for an hour or so when I get to Ohio.

Sincerely,

Koena

OBITUARY

1856—Amelia Alsines Crommer—1930

Amelia Alsines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Vaus was born in Williams county, near Stryker, Ohio, on February 16, 1856 and departed from this life on the fifth day of April 1930 to go to live with her Master, at the age of 74 years, one month and 19 days.

On October 25, 1874 she was united in marriage to Charles Henry Crommer and to this union was born four sons and two daughters, one son Johnnie M. who preceded her in his infancy.

Some 40 years ago she was converted and fellowshipped with the Amboy church of God and rendered faithful service to her Master and church while permitted to remain here on earth. She was heard to say just of few days before she fell asleep, "that she had been on the solid rock for more than 40 years, and if she had 40 more to live it would be on that rock Christ Jesus." To know her was to love her.

She with her husband took a motherless girl (Mable Beerbower) into their home and reared her to womanhood. She has been almost a constant sufferer for the last 10 years but she bore it all with patience trusting in her Savior.

Those who mourn her departure, husband, three sons Charles B., David O. and Melvin J. all of and near Pioneer, two daughters, Mrs. Cora E. Simonds and Mrs. Mary J. Lonabarger of Pioneer, one foster daughter, Mrs. Mable Gee of near Pioneer, eight grand-children, one sister Mrs. Etta Hillard of near Pioneer and a host of other relatives and friends. The many neighbors and friends sympathize with husband and children in this sad-hour of bereavement.

Mother you are sweetly resting,
Whilst we are left to mourn,
You have put your trust in Jesus,
And your work on earth is done.
You have gone to join the angels,
And we hope to meet you there
When we too shall cross the river,
To that city bright and fair.

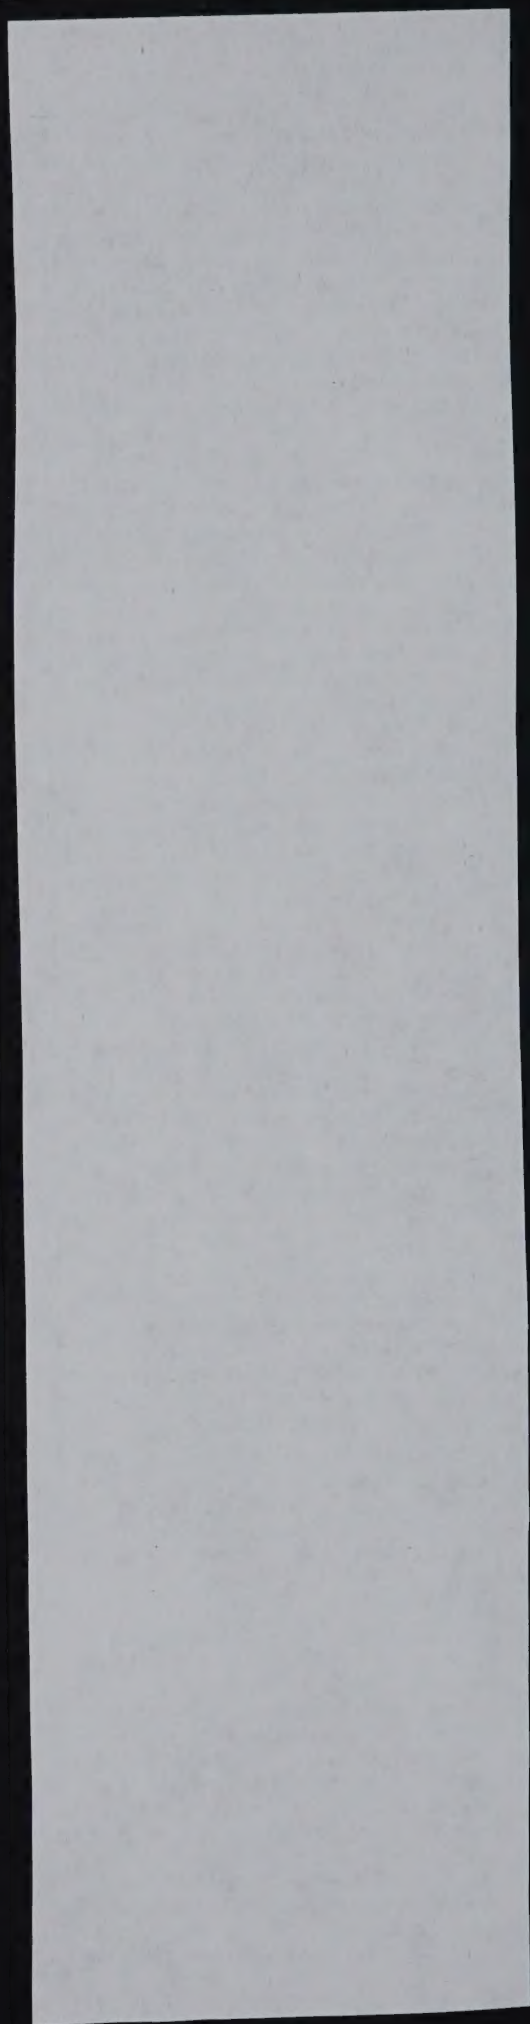

Services were held from the U. B. church, Pioneer, Ohio, April 7, 1930, conducted by Rev. J. F. Slough assisted by Rev. Strawn and her remains laid at rest in Evergreen cemetery.

Card of Thanks

It is with heartfelt appreciation that we wish to thank the many friends and neighbors for their sympathy and assistance during the illness and at time of death and burial of our dear wife and mother. For the beautiful floral tributes, the comforting word of the ministers and choir for their services. Words here cannot express our thankfulness and our prayer is that the Master may reward you all.

—Chas. Crommer and Children.

Dear Roena:

Don't feel bad, I looked for 2 hours trying to find the copy of the letter I sent. I tried to get myself organized the last few years but if I don't file something right after I do it, it gets lost in my mess. I think you did great to remember so much of what I wanted. I can't even prove that I asked, either, but I know I wanted a copy of the 1806 tax record for William Young in Fairfield Co., Ohio if you have one. I got the one from 1816 that will be OK to use for First Families of Ohio but would like the earliest possible. I'm sure I tried to get it at Fort Wayne but their records only went back to the 1816 one. So if you have a copy, fine, I'd like one. Am returning the $2 and will exchange the enclosed copy of deed to Benj. Fickle for the 1806 record-OK

I never bothered to check the names on the letter of Isaac Fickle but have to agree with the other two women that it sure looks like Killpatrick.

I found a William Kilpatrick as witness for plaintiff in case of Phebe Fickle vs. Isaac H. Fickle 22 Sept. 1841. So there definitely was a family by that name around then. I tried to find the Vansky name also but so far haven't been successful.

In Benj. estate papers, Michael Fickle is listed as agent. I also found him listed on census records. Have you ever figured out who he is? I just looked it up and Michael and wife are listed along with Wm. Kilpatrick as witnesses in the 1841 case. Check on a letter I wrote you in 1982 listing the names. I have never tried to check the case out but perhaps I should.

Oh yes, I was told that only 1 male per direct descendant can join The Society of Cincinnati and even if you are lucky enough to be the chosen one, if the soldier didn't pay his dues to the society then they aren't eligible. So guess it is an exclusive group.

I'm sending a bit I copied from an OGS Report Winter 1983 - could be a brother (Joseph) of our Isaac.

All for now. Thanks so much for writing.

*Received

Dear Roena:

You should never have said you'd do a search for me as I get carried away - Ha.

7 Aug. 1984

I checked the Ft. Wayne library file for books on Maryland and never found any with the names I am hunting. I am sure, though, that they never wrote about the farmers so would have been surprised to have found one.

They don't have land records of Caroline Co., Choptank Vale area so I couldn't check them but from the sounds of Tillman Vaus's obituary says they are poor, they certainly couldn't have owned land. Perhaps they came here as indentured people who had to work so many years to pay back their passage fare over here???

Solomon Warren was in the revolution and his papers say he was born in 1748 in Somerset Co., MD but the papers also say that future applicant's must prove line of service.

Another paper says his service is given in DAR lineage Book Vol. 111 Librarian General, NSDAR - so maybe in the meantime someone has proven it.

I just happen to think they would have had to pay personal taxes back then even if they didn't own land - maybe you could check that for the names.

I really am at a loss as to what exactly I should ask you to do as I haven't had experience back this far so you probably know more than me as to what to check.

Oh yes, we passed through a tiny, tiny town in Indiana yesterday called Fickle. Did any of the family move to central Indiana area?

Back to the Vaus family = I wrote Denton, MD. a year ago asking for a will of John Vaus and they wrote back they could not find anything in their records. Also wrote Pike Co. OH for a will for John as Solomon Warren's will was probated there and John and Eliz. Voss are listed. They have no record of it. They were certainly in Ohio by then if the Warrens were, I'd think, but if he was poor he probably didn't have anything to bother with a will anyhow.

Oh I would love to spend a week out there with you checking the records but can't.

Be sure to come see me when you come. In the meantime I'll try to find Nancy Young's final resting place.

Thanks so much for the will + receipts of Wm Young.

Dear Roena:

I finally got my Fickle paper ready and sent it in as a supplemental. They are getting so pickie now though I'll probably get it back with them wanting more proof.

I have never sent you the photo of Mary Fickle that I promised. I'm enclosing the one they used in the Williams County history book for you to keep.

Also finally found John and Mary Vaus's stone in Michigan at the Burt or Evergreen Cemetery in Ranson Twp., Hillsdale Co., Michigan. I'm sending you a xerox copy. If you want a real picture, let me know and I'll see if I can find the negative. My great uncle, Johnny Hillard, died a few months ago (100 years old) and he was buried in the same cemetery. I asked some of my relatives about the Vaus stone and they said yes it was definitely there but they didn't know where. I had about given up as it wasn't in the oldest part but happen to come upon it. It is about 5 feet tall and pinkish color and very outstanding - if you know what you are looking for-Ha.

I have done some research on the Vaus family but cannot do any good. Tilghman/Tillman Vaus that was the pioneer in this area came from very poor people or so his obituary says. So I know they won't be in the history books. They came from Caroline Co. Maryland but I can't find anything. I have never written the Maryland Archives so they may be able to help me.

This Saturday is our county genealogical society's first annual banquet and they are recognizing people who have proven their right to be in the First Families of Williams County (by 1860). I have 23 different names and 40 individuals so far but the gal had a deadline for this year that I didn't know about so I don't know how many she will list under me for this time. That took me a while to get it all together but now it will be easy if my kids want in in the future or anyone else for that matter.

Have you ever wanted information from New York state? You might as well forget it - I wrote asking for a will of Elijah Snow and even sent the date - I want to prove he had a son Isaac. Anyway it would cost me $40 plus $3 per page that they would send me. They didn't say if my $40 would be returned if they didn't find what I wanted. Isn't that awful?

Michigan is bad too. You can't get a marriage record or even dates without a court order. What would that cost? It's really disgusting.

Guess I'd better close for now and get to work.

Hope all is well with you.

Sincerely,

Jaqueline

Dear Susan:

I finally got my little paper ready and sent it to you. I'm enclosing the one they used in the Williams County history book for you to keep. I have never sent you the photo of Mary Wick's that I promised.

Also finally found John and Mary Ann's stone in Michigan at the South of Greenlee Cemetery in Jackson Twp., Hillsdale Co., Michigan. I'm sending you a xerox copy. If you want a real picture, let me know and I'll see if I can find the negative. My great uncle, Johnny Hillman, died a few months ago (1983 years old) and he was buried in the same cemetery. I asked some of my relatives about the Van's stone and they said yes it was definitely there but they didn't know where. I had about given up as it wasn't in the oldest part but happened to remember it. It is about 5 feet tall and pinkish color and very outstanding - if you know what you are looking for.

I have done some research on the Van family but cannot do any good. William Van was the pioneer in this area came from very poor people or so his obituary says. So I know they won't be in the history books. They came from Caroline Co. Maryland but I can't find anything. I have never written the Maryland Archives so they may be able to help me.

This Saturday is our county genealogical society's first annual banquet and they are recognizing people who have given their right to be in the first families of Williams County (by 1850). I have 25 different names and 40 individuals so far but the real test is whether for this year that I didn't know about so I can't know how many are still under me for this time. That took me a while to get it all together but now it will be easy if my kids want in the future or anyone else for that matter.

Have you ever wanted information from New York state? You might as well forget it - I wrote asking for a will of Eliza Ann and even sent the date - I want to prove he had a son Isaac. Anyway it would cost me $40 plus $5 per page that they would send me. They didn't say if my $40 would be returned if they didn't find what I wanted. I don't that either!

Dear Roena:

I had an unexpected invitation to spend the day at Ft. Wayne at the library so did more checking on William Young. I found the 1806 tax record I asked you to send me so if you haven't already done it you won't need to. For FFO

What they tell me now that I need something other than the tax records also as people could pay tax but not necessarily live there. So I planned to get a copy of the 1810 Ohio census but found out there wasn't any. Then I didn't have time to check for 1820. Even if I find the 1820 census it won't prove they were in Ohio in 1806 so I suppose I will need a land record that would list William's address as Ohio. Oh my - more writing.

Ohio

I came across an/1810 tax duplicate printed in 1976 with all the states taxpayers listed in alphabetical order. There were two William Youngs. One from Montgomery County and the other from Fairfield County. I assume ours is the one from Fairfield Co.

Then I checked a book by Carol Bell and found the following William Young 30 May 1812 #3969 Resident of Allegheny Co., PA.

R3 T14 S31 from Ohio Lands Steubenville Land Office

William Young 29 Feb. 1802 Extry # 349
R20 T12 Sec. 24-SW & NW from Chillicothe Land office

Both were in Book of Entries F 1810-1812 by Carol Bell

I was hoping I had found the county in PA our William was from but I don't think it is the correct William although the Steubenville land office would have covered the area right beside PA so he might have come very early into Jefferson Co. or nearby. Oh that isn't right as he was already here in 1806.

The second entry must be our William as the Chillicothe land office was in Ross County which is right near Fairfield and probably covered that territory. That was in 1802 but it didn't give a place of residence, of course. So we are back to square one.

I'll let you know if I find any mention of where he came from in PA or have you found it by now - I hope hope hope - Ha.

Have you received a letter from a Mrs. Rhodes in Kansas? She wrote our WCGS asking about Benjamin Fickle so I sent her some information from Benj.'s estate papers - Isaac's letter to war department.etc. and your name and address. She wrote back saying her husband's mother was Amy Ellen Fickel Rhodes but that was it so I still don't know if she is from Isaac or another child of Benj. I'm hoping she is researching another child and we might learn something new. The book they are preparing is only for her family but she said she would be happy to share family sheets, etc. I have never gotten around to making one for myself but told her I would send her the Isaac family history that Mrs. Ely gave me. It is what I always use even though some is incorrect. Mrs. Rhodes' husband had emergency surgery when she wrote me so I'm sure she wasn't thinking straight or would have told me more. She is Mrs. Charles Rhodes, 10 N. Hospital Dr., Paola, Kansas 66071. You're more up on the Fickles so you may want to write her. All for now

Dear Jacque,

Sorry I haven't been much help of late. I'm working at it but not much found at each search. For the Youngs, I wonder if that graveyard two miles west of Bucyrus on the Wyandot road is still there. The history said that Joseph and many of his family were buried there. If William was buried there, lets see he died 25 Oct. 1839 aged 77. Joseph prob. died sometime later, I wonder if there is an obit. for him in a Bucyrus paper. If such a critter could be found maybe it would say where they came from in PA. A needle in the hay stack.

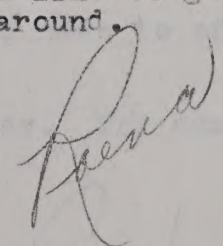

Just last week I was in Harrisburg at the State Library and found this review of the "History of the Slaymaker Family." Now it makes me wonder if Margaret came over with her family and he came or maybe the Slaymaker family was on the ship Hope also. I don't think I ever made a zerox copy of the ship's list.

Isn't this strange, I saw a query from Mrs. Rhodes so answered it. Received a reply and just today I sent her some family sheets. I think her James is from Joseph and Nancy Tannehill. Also sent her some family sheets on other Josephs so she could sort through them. Sent her the book review about the Slaymaker family. I hope she comes up with some new leads.

Next time I can go to Harrisburg I will go to the ~~14~~ building where the land records are kept. They told me that the records are not indexed but all the early records are kept there. The building itself looks forbidding. Its the shape of a shoe box and looks thirty stories high. Looks like one could spend days there. Probably I should look for sale of land beginning about 1800 and go till find something. Maybe it won't be as hopeless as it seems just thinking about it.

Having a big Thanksgiving? Ours sort of fizzled out. My nephew Darrell and his wife were coming but had a phone call noon yesterday and Eleanor is recovering from the flu and he isn't feeling so zippy so they aren't coming. Anna Buda and Peg were coming but Anna called and said something had been scheduled at the Hosp. and Peg couldn't get off. So there we are, big turkey, nut bread and several other things in the making. Mary said maybe she would split the turkey in half, roast one and freeze the other.

Guess this is all for the moment. Always glad to hear from you. Hope we can get together the next time I come home. I would like very much to find something of the Towers family hist. The old family album contained a picture of Al Towers and evidently they lived close to the Listers. Maybe you would like to go with me up to that area and we could do some looking around.

Dear Jacque,

Too much time has been wasted in trying to locate your letter. Goodness knows where it is. Probably just about the time I seal this letter it will pop up right in front of my eyes.

I remember that you asked for the address of Irv Lister and his sister so:

Ervin S. Lister
32 E Carleton #602
Hillsdale, MI 49242

his sister:

Beulah M. Lister
207 Steward H-35
Jackson, MI 49201

I believe also that you mention ed some land for military service on Benjamin--- could I begin all over again? I believe you mentioned having found where Benjamin received land for Military Service. I don't have this information so would like very much to have a copy.

I had a letter from Dorothy Morris, Claypool Ariz and she had a new thought as she read the letter written by Isaac H. concerning the pension of Benjamin. You know some of us interpreted the names of the surviving children as: Rachel Vansky, Catharine Rill/Rilli; Patrick and Isaac H. Well, take another look. She and another person that she has corresponded with interprets it differently, ie Rachel Vansky, Catharine Killpatrick, and Isaac H. What do you think of this? In fact I wonder why we never thought of this before. Perhaps this is the reason we have never been able to find a Patrick Pickle. We have often mentioned that it didn't seem to fit into the family of names.

In that part of a Crawford Co. hist. on pg 211 intitlled AND REPRESENTATIVE CITIZENS, "There was a grave yard, two miles west of Bucyrus on the Wyandot road, where Joseph Young and many of his family were buried. The first known burial was that of William Young who died Oct 25, 1839, aged 77yrs. That would make his birth date ca 1762.

Sorry this is so late but it's about all I have to offer at this time.

Wish your trip had included coming this way. Try again-

Dear Ms. Bayes,

My name is Normagene Ely, my husband is Richard Ely and he is an descendant of Benjamin and Isaac Fickle. I understand from what Jackie Whetro has told me, that you are also. She said that your great-grandfather was George Fickle, son of Isaac Fickle. Richard's descendant would be Rebecca Jane Fickle who married John William Lister. Their daughter Elizebeth Ann Lister married Wesley Keck- they were my husband's grandparents. Eliza and Wesley's daughter, Flossie married Rush Ely-- they are his parents.

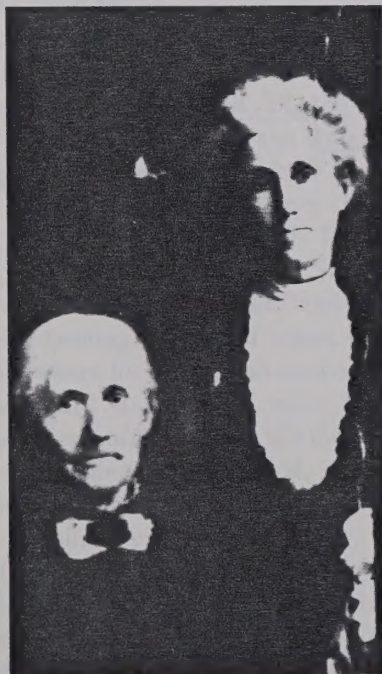

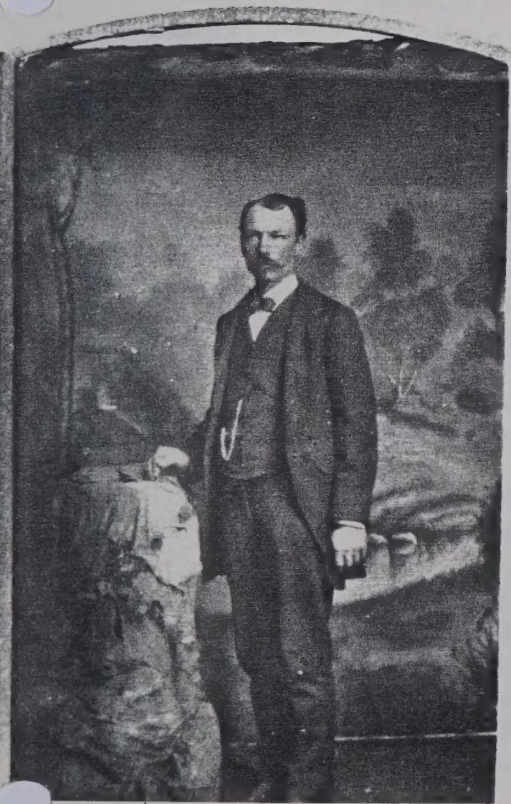

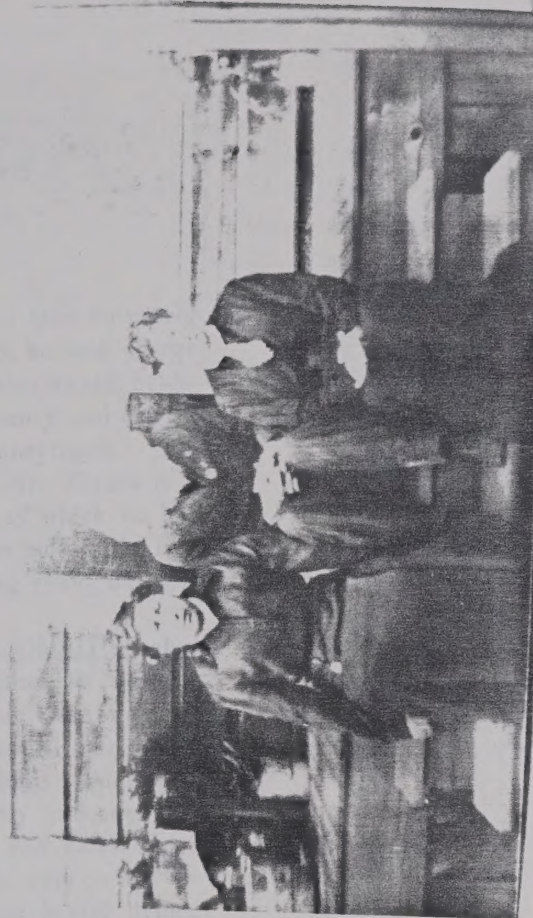

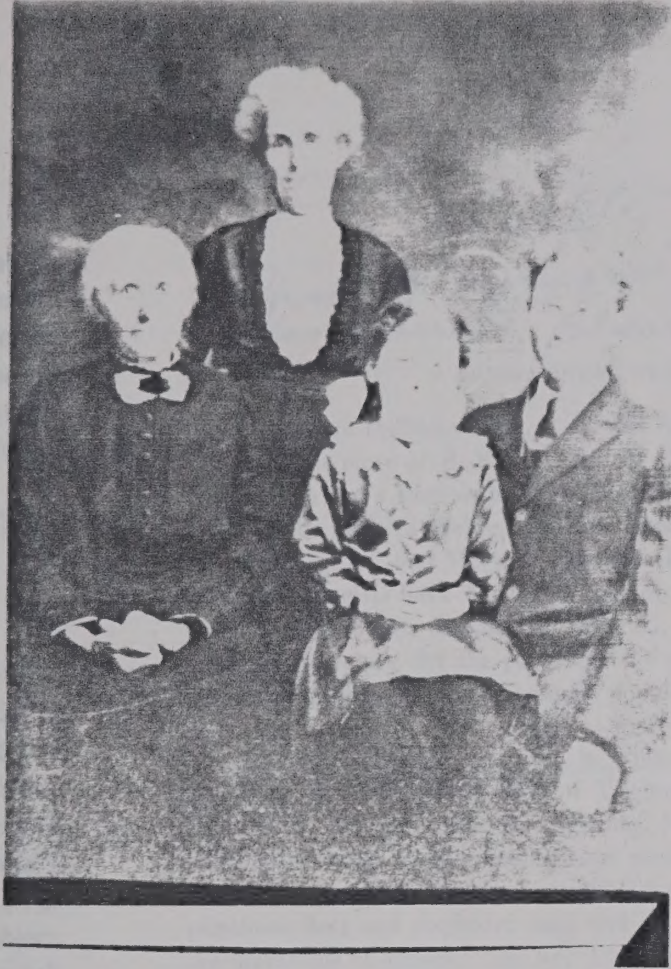

We have known through Rev. Wm. Trivett Lister--son of Eddy Lister, who was the son of Rebecca--that Isaac was Rebecca's father and Benjamin was Isaac's father. From books at the library, I had learned that Benjamin was a Revolutionary War soldier and had been buried on Isaac's farm in Jefferson Twp. Flossie didn't know anything about them, and as she passed away April of this year, I didn't know where to turn to. As I am very new in this genealogy, I searched the courthouse records; birth certificates, death certificates, probate records, cemetaries, and had about given up when I found something that tied Jackie Whetro in with the Fickles. I called her Tuesday and to my delight, she told me where Isaac was buried and gave me dates that I never had. She came over yesterday to get some material I had gotten from Rev. Lister on the Vaus family. Imagine how pleased I was when she brought along pictures of Rebecca and her family and even a picture of Nancy (Young) Fickle. Do you suppose that you could make copies for me? I would gladly pay for the cost of copying and any other expense. I would like anything at all pertaining to the Fickles or Youngs.

I would like to ask something else of you. Jackie said that George and Marianna (Wasnich) Fickle's daughter Adella married John Hutchinson. He was my grandmother's brother. My maiden name was Normagene Mercer, Daughter of Ernest Mercer. He was the son of Clara Susan Hutchinson who married Edgar Mercer. Clara and John were brother and sister. They also had brothers Jake and George and sisters Lib Pifer and Minnie Reader. Their father's name was William Hutchinson and their mother's name was Rebecca Bowman (or Bauman). Does any of your relation know who Rebecca's parents were? Her first name could be Leah but on her marriage certificate it says Rebecca. On infant's grave back of her stone at Shiffler Cem., it says son of Wm. & L.R. Hutchinson. I have researched all the Bowmans, Baumans and Bomans and can't find who her parents were. I do know her birth and death dates from her gravestone at Shiffler Cem.

I am enclosing self-addressed envelope and a couple of dollars hoping it will take care of any copying you have to do. I'm so glad to be in correspondence with somebody about the Fickles. One hardly runs across anybody who knows anything about the Fickles. Please excuse all the mistakes, my left wrist has arthritis in it so I have to use my right hand. Hoping to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Normagene Ely

The Tilman Vaus farm has been divided among the children as follows: J. P. Vaus who has cleaned the timber and brush and improved 80 acres of it, was given 40 acres for caring for the old folks during the later years of their life, and 40 acres additional. William Vaus who cleaned and improved an 80, and paid part of its value, gets it and an additional 40. The daughter gets an even 40 and the other boys get the remainder, 50 acres apiece -- a perfectly satisfactory division.

Ronald L. Whetro (1935 — 2014)

MONTPELIER — Ronald L. Whetro, 79, was born June 25, 1935, in Kunkle, Ohio, son of Rudy and Geraldine (Wagner) Whetro.

He died, at home, peacefully on Saturday, Nov. 29, 2014, under hospice care, following a two-year battle with melanoma and is now at a baseball field in heaven.

He moved with his family to Montpelier in 1949, when his Dad needed to be near his railroad job.

Ron was a 1953 graduate of MHS. He was a natural born athlete playing football, basketball and baseball at MHS, with baseball his favorite sport. His senior year, while co-captain of Montpelier's football team, he gained over 2,000 yards as quarterback and halfback. He was named to the 1952 NWOAL All-Star team and Toledo Blade All-Star Selection of All-Northwest Ohio League First Team.

He attended Valparaiso University on a football scholarship and played on the varsity team as a freshman.

He was a catcher in a baseball game at the Hillsdale County Fair in 1954 when signed by a Detroit Tigers baseball scout. He played the spring training season in Florida, but never had his dream come true of being in the majors.

He married Jacquelyn Youse Dec. 1, 1956, at the First Presbyterian Church in Montpelier and they moved to Fort Wayne, Ind., where he graduated 18 months later with an accounting degree from International Business College.

He was drafted into the U.S. Army and played football and baseball in Germany in 1959-'60. Both teams won league championships. His wife lived in Ulm, Germany with him; and their daughter, Suzette, was born there. They were fortunate to travel around Europe then and again in 1970.

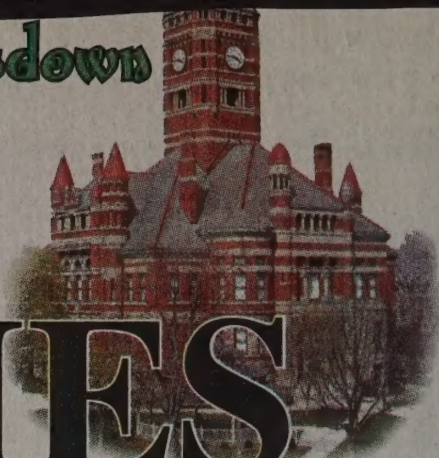

Upon returning to civilian life, they settled in Montpelier where he became the accountant at Hause Valve Company. Their son, Meric "Ric", was born in 1964 to complete their family.

Ron was always involved with sports. He played and coached youth baseball from 1961-1979. He became an official, working junior high through high school baseball, basketball and football for over 25 years. He was treasurer of the NW Ohio officials association for about 9 years. He was past president of the Montpelier Athletic Boosters, always supporting local events. He never went anywhere without meeting someone he'd known through his years in sports.

He was a collector of military and Wabash Railroad memorabilia, coins and baseball cards and loved sharing cards with youngsters. He enjoyed playing cards with his weekly poker guys that met for over 40 years. Ron and his wife enjoyed collecting antiques and liked visiting state capitols.

After retirement in 2000, they spent several months in Florida each year during the winter. He especially liked meeting former baseball greats and getting autographs at spring training camps.

But all paths always led to Kunkle, even after 63 years in Montpelier.

He was a 50 year member of the Montpelier Masonic Lodge #547. He, also, was active in the local Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion Post #109 and served on the honor guard.

Ron was a lifetime member of the Williams County Historical Society and had been treasurer in recent years.

He was an active member of the First Presbyterian Church of Montpelier serving as Elder when he died.

He lived life to the fullest and didn't hesitate to let his thoughts be known.

Ron was especially proud of his family and their accomplishments. He enjoyed watching and encouraging the three grandchildren in their endeavors.

He is survived by his wife, Jacquelyn; daughter, Suzanne Whetro of Toledo; son, Meric (Amy); and grandchildren, Kyle, Alexander and Cassidy Whetro of Delaware, Ohio; brother, Terry Whetro of Bryan, Ohio; nephew, Tim Whetro of Sylva, Ohio, and brother-in-law, Terry (Mary Ann) Youse of Montpelier, Ohio.

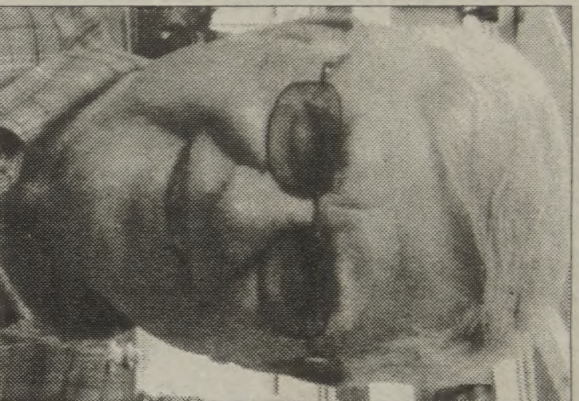

His memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Thursday, Dec. 4, 2014, at the Montpelier First Presbyterian Church with Rev. David Tilly officiating, and the Montpelier Veterans to provide Military Rites. Calling hours 9-11 a.m. before the service. A luncheon will be served in the church fellowship hall following the service, with time to celebrate his life and reminisce. Memorials may be made to Montpelier First Presbyterian Church or Donor's choice. A private interment will be held at Riverside Cemetery at later date. Condolences may be made online at thethompsonfuneralhome.com.

Thanks for your prompt reply. I just wish I would always do the same because it is always so exciting to establish

HISTORY OF WILLIAMS COUNTY - 1882 OHIO

John P. Vaus, born in Pickaway County, Ohio Dec. 12, 1830 oldest child of Tilghman W. and Elizabeth Towers Vaus, both natives of Caroline County, MD. John Vaus went to Pickaway County when a young man and was married there. In 1837 he came to Brady Twp., entered 160 acres of land and built a cabin. April 22, 1855 he married Mary Fickle, a native of Crawford County and daughter of Isac H. and Nancy Young Fickle.

Local Customs

The Tilman Vaus farm has been divided among the children as follows:

J. P. Vaus, who ~~sett~~ cleared the timber and brush and improved 80 acres of it, was given 40 acres for caring for the old folks during the later years of their life, and 40 acres additional, with interest, who cleared an improved an 80, and paid part of its value, gets it and an additional 40. The daughter gets an even 40, and the other boys get the remainder, fifty acres apiece - a perfectly satisfactory division.

JOHN P. VAUS was born in Pickaway County, Ohio, December 12, 1830, and is the oldest child of Tilghman W. and Elizabeth (Towers) Vaus, both natives of Caroline County, Md. Tilghman Vaus went to Pickaway County when a young man, and was there married. In 1837, he came to Brady Township, entered 160 acres of land, built a cabin with puncheon floor and clapboard roof, and here he and family underwent all the privations of pioneer life, but lived to see all the vast forest about him yield to the advance of civilization, and closed his eyes on the regenerated scene March 31, 1880. Mrs. Elizabeth Vaus is still living, and residing on the old homestead with her son, our subject. John P. Vaus was reared on the farm till twenty-one, receiving his education in the old log schoolhouse of the district. He cleared up and worked a piece of land he and his father jointly owned in this township, and on this he resided a number of years. April 22, 1855, he married Mary Fickle, a native of Crawford County, Ohio, and daughter of Isaac H. and Nancy (Young) Fickle. To this union have been born three children—Amelia A., now Mrs. Charles B. Cromer; Nancy E., now Mrs. Samuel Fogle; Mary E., now Mrs. Sylvester A. Hillard. In February, 1865, Mr. Vaus enlisted in Company D, One Hundred and Ninety-fifth Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served until mustered out at Cumberland, Md., July 24, 1865; he then resumed farming on his old place, but in 1868 moved to Hillsdale County, Mich, where he bought and cleared up forty acres unimproved land, and farmed until March, 1875, when he returned to Brady Township, where he has ever since resided on the old homestead. Mr. and Mrs. Vaus are members of the Church of God, and in politics he is a Republican. He belongs to one of the oldest families in the township, and is one of its most prominent citizens.

This is interesting. They all come from Maryland together. Somewhere I read Lowers come from Cawline Co. Md. I shall try there for Youngs also.

Do you have Eddy Lowers pension record? If not I can send it.

Would you like a copy of this whole record?
Probably there are other people you have heard about.

NOTARY PUBLIC

Dear Roena-

9-19-96

I found my copy of the "Marylander" Reunion for 1901.
Now we have 2 reunion notes.
It would be great to find the rest. A picture of the tent would be nice. Even if we can't recognize them at least we know they are our ancestors. I wish I knew where Mrs Jane Lister lived in Hillsdale County. I am going to see if I can find out. Maybe a local newspaper may have another year of the reunion.
I wish the paragraph that told about the births, deaths &
marriage had listed the names. But I guess this is

• T H I N K •
P O S I T I V E

If you think you are beaten, you are.
If you think you dare
not, you don't.
Success begins with your own will...
It's all in your state
of mind.
Life's battles are not always won
By those who are stronger
or faster;
Sooner or later the person who wins
Is the person who thinks he can!

A Challenge for us. I am enjoying all the information you sent. Each time I go thru it I learn something new.
It is so exciting.

I have a happy feeling that I was able to help you complete your research to..

We Marylander Reunion

"We Marylanders" held their second annual reunion last Wednesday on the banks of Leatherwood on the Vaus farm, upon the historic spot where 64 years ago Tillman Vaus built a small cabin. This reunion includes the descendants of a little colony, who, 75 years ago, shook the white sassafras sand of the slaved cursed eastern shores of Maryland and turned their faces to the gloomy woods of Northwest.

Of that home seeking company were Tillman Warren and his sons Peter, James, John, Charles and Thomas and several daughters; John Warren, the patriarch of the band, and his sons William, John and Solomon and daughters Nancy, Mary, Rebecca, Rhoda and Elizabeth; Aaron Lister, the young husband of Nancy Warren. Tillman Vaus, a nephew of John and Tillman Warren; Emery Towers and his sister Elizabeth. Of these, John Warren who was lame and old, was the only one who rode all the way. On foot they courageously climbed the eastern slope of the Blue Ridge and looked longingly toward Ohio. They settled first in Pickaway county and soon found their "Rehoboth".

Of Tillman's sons, Peter soon earned a small home and by diligence and economy "bought all the land adjoining him". John and James put all their Ohio earned dollars in Illinois prairie land, near Galesburg. Charles, the student, lived a pioneer M.E. preacher in the Scioto Valley. Thomas contentedly kept the homestead farm. The daughters all were mothers of homes in Pickaway county.

Of the others, Tillman Vaus married Elizabeth Towers and in 1837 settled on the ground where this reunion was held. Emery Towers and wife came at the same time and built a home adjoining on the west. Soon after William, John and Solomon Warren, Aaron Lister and wife (Nancy Warren), John Hamet and wife (Rhoda Warren) came and built up homes in the wilds of Leatherwood.

In memory of these pioneers and to renew old friendships and to form new acquaintances, to keep alive the sentiment of kith and clan, ninety one of their descendants met and visited. They came from Indiana, from Michigan and Ohio. They visited, ate together a bountiful dinner under the shade of trees planted over 50 years ago by Grandpa Vaus and cared for by "Aunt Elizabeth".

The exercises were numerous - recitations from the little folks which were greatly enjoyed by all, many songs by those who could get near the organ where Miss Jennie Hamet presided and an address by Peter L. Warren. The dinner, songs, recitations and address were all "our own" and were enjoyed by all.

An election was held by which J.F. Hamet was made president; John Lister, vice president; Cecile Warren, secretary; John P. Vaus, Albert Dohm and Peter Warren the "get ready committee". Next Meeting to be held the third Wednesday of August 1902, at the home of John P. Vaus, Hillsdale, Michigan.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. William H. Keck, Ray and Wilda Keck, Cedarville, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Keck, Lloyd, Bertha, Vertie, Ethel and Inez Keck, Wallen, Indiana; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lister, Vernie Lister, Mr. and Mrs. John Lister and son, John; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lister, Bertie, Trivett, and Esther Lister; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lister, Velta, Ivan, Baulah Lister, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dohm, Burton Barnes and sweetheart, Ransom, Mich; Mr. and Mrs. D. Vaus, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Towers, Mr. and Mrs. John Towers, Zella, Lloyd and Rush Towers; Mrs. E. Eddinger

Mrs. L. Eddinger, Fae Eddinger, Mrs. Amelia Cromer and Mary Cromer, Buckeye, Mich; Mrs. Libbie Fogle, Charles and Loren Fogle, Mr. and Mrs. J.F. We Marylander Reunion

"We Marylanders" held their second annual reunion last Wednesday on the banks of Leatherwood on the Vaus farm, upon the historic spot where 64 years ago Tillman Vaus built a small cabin. This reunion includes the descendants of a little colony, who, 75 years ago, shook the white sassafras sand of the slaved-cursed eastern shores of Maryland and turned their faces to the gloomy woods of Northwest.

Of that home seeking company were Tillman Warren and his sons Peter, James, John, Charles and Thomas and several daughters; John Warren, the patriarch of the band, and his sons William, John and Solomon and daughters Nancy, Mary, Rebecca, Rhoda and Elizabeth; Aaron Lister, the young husband of Nancy Warren. Tillman Vaus, a nephew of John and Tillman Warren; Emery Towers and his sister Elizabeth. Of these, John Warren who was lame and old, was the only one who rode all the way. On foot they courageously climbed the eastern slope of the Blue Ridge and looked longingly toward Ohio. They settled first in Pickaway county and soon found their "Rehoboth".

Of Tillman's sons, Peter soon earned a small home and by diligence and economy "bought all the land adjoining him". John and James put all their Ohio earned dollars in Illinois prairie land, near Galesburg. Charles, the student, lived a pioneer M.E. preacher in the Scioto Valley. Thomas contentedly kept the homestead farm. The daughters all were mothers of homes in Pickaway county.

Of the others, Tillman Vaus married Elizabeth Towers and in 1837 settled on the ground where this reunion was held. Emery Towers and wife came at the same time and built a home adjoining on the west. Soon after William, John and Solomon Warren, Aaron Lister and wife (Nancy Warren), John Hamet and wife (Rhoda Warren) came and built up homes in the wilds of Leatherwood.

In memory of these pioneers and to renew old friendships and to form new acquaintances, to keep alive the sentiment of kith and clan, ninety one of their descendants met and visited. They came from Indiana, from Michigan and Ohio. They visited, ate together a bountiful dinner under the shade of trees planted over 50 years ago by Grandpa Vaus and cared for by "Aunt Elizabeth".

The exercises were numerous - recitations from the little folks which were greatly enjoyed by all, many songs by those who could get near the organ where Miss Jennie Hamet presided and an address by Peter L. Warren. The dinner, songs, recitations and address were all "our own" and were enjoyed by all.

An election was held by which J.F. Hamet was made president; John Lister, vice president; Cecile Warren, secretary; John P. Vaus, Albert Dohm and Peter Warren the "get ready committee". Next Meeting to be held the third Wednesday of August 1902, at the home of John P. Vaus, Hillsdale, Michigan.

Rev. John M. McMillan, son of John and Jane McMillan, was born near Reading, Michigan, November 18, 1857, and departed this life near Auburn, Indiana, January 17, 1917. December 24, 1878, he joined in marriage Miss Emma A. Acker, whose decease occurred November 7, 1894. To them were born two sons and one daughter, the youngest son preceding his mother in death. January 6, 1897, he joined Jennie M. Adams in marriage, and to this union were born two daughters and two sons, the latter two dying in infancy. He leaves to mourn, his faithful wife, one son, three daughters, three grandchildren, and other relatives and many friends, not least of whom are the members of his pastorless charge, Waterloo circuit, and North Ohio conference. At nineteen years of age he gave his heart to God and identified himself with the United Brethren church whose principles he cherished, heralded and defended to the end of his life. He received quarterly conference license to preach in 1878, the license signed by his beloved presiding elder, Rev. J. K. Alwood, of precious memory. He was received into the membership of the North Ohio annual conference in its session of 1884 at South Medina, Michigan, presided over by Bishop J. G. Glossbrenner, and in 1886 was ordained by Bishop J. Dickson. In his sixteen years of pastoral service he traveled Stryker, Pioneer, Waterloo, Ogden, Morenci, East Amboy, Waldron, and Montgomery fields, closing in his seventeenth pastoral year on Waterloo circuit. He was presiding elder four years and one year evangelist. After spending the last seven years upon his farm, and feeling so much the hand of God upon him to resume active pastoral service, he again yielded to his calling, and accepted Waterloo circuit assigned him by the conference last fall, and with his family removed to the field, where his splendid services were greatly appreciated, and whence, too, he was soon called from labor to reward. Religion with our brother was not a mere theory, but a personally experienced divine reality. He was intensely earnest in the work, and the expressed desire of his heart that he might "die in the harness" was granted, he passing suddenly away with apoplexy. Two public services were held in his memory; one in Waterloo, Indiana, by Rev. C. E. Wolverton on Saturday, January 20, and one Monday in his former home community in Michigan, conducted by the undersigned in Otterbein church of Ransom circuit. In the former service six annual conference ministers assisted; in the latter seven assisted, and six of whom were bearers. A profusion of flowers in sprays, wreaths and emblematic designs from Prattville and Waterloo high schools and Central college and from numerous other sources were in evidence of the high esteem in which Brother McMillan and family were held. Interment in the Ransom Evergreen cemetery "where his body lies slumbering, but his soul is safe in heaven."

Hon Commrsemer of Pent
Washington D.C.

Dear Sir In reply to yours of Apr
30 in regard to Eddy Lowers an applicant for Pension would say that I enlisted said Lowers in Feb^r of 1864 when home on Veter furlough at that time I thought him to be one of as healthy looking men as was recruited for the Co^y when we was at home

He joined the Company about the first of March 1864 - He like most recruits soon got on the sick list. I have this to say for him he was to gritty for his own good he was determine not to report to the Surgeon - According to a Memorandum Rept by me at the time I find that Co. H^{rs} 38th O V D was sent out on Picket on the morning of ^{the 21st} March and that about Midnight it began to snow & by morning ^{of the 22nd} the snow was about 8 inches deep and the men suffered fearfully we was relieved about 9 A.M. - Lowers with others was sick - He had a severe attack of Rheumatism
I was 1st Sarge of the Co^y at that time & took

Lowers to the Surgeons Every Morning for a long time & was Excused from duty - He was not taken to hospital because he did not like the idea of leaving the Co as long as we was laying in Camp & he was able to care for himself as long as his tent mates done his cooking & washing - He began to do duty the later part of Apr or the first May he was a good & faithful soldier on the Atlant^a Campaign many times doing duty where he had aught to have been in the hospital he was one of those men who never complained but always went when Ordered

Me thinks that I hear some of the Examiners saying how does that old Chap remember so much of this man Lowers - Will ans that question he was the last man that I enlisted and the women part of the family made me promise that I would look after Eddy if he was sick
 I agreed to do so as far as laid in my power
 He was one of those good honest fellows & I took a liking for him - Have met him but a few times since we left the service

In looking over what I have written I find that I have omitted one thing that I meant to have stated
 On the Atlantic Campaign he complained of Piles he had the disorder bad - like many of the men in Sherman's Army in the Summer of 1864 Respectfully Yours

Dear Roena Bayes -

I received your name and address from Mary Etta Horvath. She shared a family group sheet of Eddy Towers with his picture on it. Eddy Towers' daughter Emma-Emily Elizabeth Towers was my great grandmother. I have enclosed some pictures that I have of the Towers family. Any help that you might give on names would be appreciated.

Also enclosed copies that I received from Jean Quackenbush a few years ago. I sent her copies of the pictures

3) but didn't receive an answer or the letter back. She was very helpful at the time. I hope this will be of help for you.

If you could ~~send~~ information about your family I would like to add it to mine.

If you know of any Towers relatives or some one else researching that family Please give my name to them. I would like to write to them. Do you have any more information about the Towers - ? Pictures?

Sincerely
Carol Cross

Dear Carole,

For a long time we have been waiting and looking for a descendent from Aunt Elizabeth Tower's family. Now we have a contact with every one of Isaac H.'s children's descendents. I'm really pleased to hear from you.

Today I put together something from each of these families. Some of the data was begun by my Mother and Cousin Minnie many years ago and too we had reunions for years. Then not until 1976 did I begin to collect. Much too late as many of the older ones were gone and there was no one to ask. I sent much to Larry Williams, Jean Quackenbush, and many others. Mary Etta (Culler) Horvath and I go to the Ft. Wayne Library everytime I get back to Ohio. Two years ago I met our CA cousins in Salt Lake and we had a great time. We plan to do the same this year the second week in Dec. I have lost contact with Jean Quackenbush. Whenever this happens, it's my fault. I have been searching too many lines at one time and can't keep up with my correspondence.

I hope you can let me know how Al Towers, the picture enclosed fits in the family. I think I also have one of Eddy but that would not be the Civil War Eddie that married Elizabeth.

I could go on and on but have a "General Orders" (news letter) to get our for our Daughters of Union Veterans of the Civil War and I'd better get with it. I'm already late.

I do hope you want all this pack I've sent. I really like to get it destributed so perhaps somewhere it will be preserved. I try to collect all the Civil War records I can everytime I go down to Archives. I have an idea that in the not too distant future they will photocopy the records and we will not have the privilege of browsing thru and touching those documents that our ancestors wrote or even if it's just a little X they added for their signature.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Loena

Hi Roena:

Hope you have this same address so I can reach you this way.

I received a photo from a man in PA that is supposed to be of Tilghman Warren Vaus and wife Elizabeth (Towers) Vaus.

I got out a bunch of folders and found the photocopies you sent me about 4 years ago that came from Carole Cross. The one of the man with gray long hair that hangs to his shoulder on his left side looks very similar to the one just sent me by the man in PA only when he was older. The wives didn't look that close, though. The eyes on the men are unusual and I thought it could be the same man. I sent copies of both to the man and also Mary Etta Horvath and she wrote back that you said they were of Isaac H. Fickle and Nancy (Young) Fickle. I have the photocopy, too, that you sent me but you said you believe it to be them. And the photo I have given by you of a much older woman supposed to be Nancy, really looks like the lady in this the old photocopy beside the man with the long hair. How did you decide it was Nancy?

Then the man from PA wrote back that he didn't even see any resemblance. I don't know where he got his photos but he is a Vaus - through Quincy Tilghman Vaus - so probably is correct about the photos he sent me.

I'm sending them for you to take a look. Maybe you have the originals of the man with the long hair and could compare them better.

Hope you are fine. We spent the month of March in FL watching baseball games and then came back to this "cold" weather. We walked in the snow this morning - yuck.

All for now.

Obituary

Elizabeth Fickel Towers was born Oct. 3, 1838 and departed this life Feb. 15, 1919, aged 80 years, 5 months and 12 days.

She was united in marriage to Eddy Towers, Aug. 10, 1856 and to this union were born seven children. Her husband and one child preceded her in death.

She was converted about 50 years ago and later united with the Church of God at Buckeye and remained a good and faithful member, a model Christian and steadfast to the end. Her church was her care, its progress her desire and its welfare was in her heart and mind until the last. Her church was a sacred institution to her she loved the House of God and always enjoyed its devotions and as long as health permitted was at her post, and now she has only been transplanted into the Great Church Triumphant where we can hope to meet her again. She was a kind and loving neighbor, honored by all who knew her; a faithful wife, a loving mother and a devoted Christian.

She leaves to mourn her departure, six children—three sons and three daughters; 27 grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren many other relatives and a host of friends.

CARD OF THANKS

The family wish to thank the neighbors and friends who in any way contributed to her comfort in life and sickness and at the time of death and burial of our beloved mother.

OBITUARY

Thomas Towers, son of Emery and Mahalia Towers, was born in Pickanay county, Ohio, October 31st, 1832, and departed this life, Tuesday, July 19th, 1927, in Hillsdale county, Michigan, aged 94 years, 8 months and 18 days. He was the last survivor of a family of twelve children.

When about five years of age, he accompanied his parents to Williams county, settling in the south-west part of Brady township, where he grew to manhood, and helped in clearing the land which was then almost unbroken wilderness.

He was united in marriage to Harriet Dawson, Nov. 9th, 1854, and they made their home for some time on a farm they bought and cleared in Jefferson township. They then resided on part of the old Towers home stead in Brady township for a number of years, after which they purchased the farm in Amboy township, Hillsdale county, Michigan, where he has made his home for over forty-seven years.

To this union were born seven children, all of whom grew to maturity. Two of them, (Mrs. Mary Worden and Frank Towers) have preceded him in death.

In about the year 1880, he with his wife, was converted to Christ and joined the Church of God in Amboy township, and he remained faithful and loyal to his Master until the end. In his later years he often remarked he was ready to go.

His wife passed away, Nov. 20th, 1891.

Three years later he married Mrs. Harriet Holden, who passed away, March 22, 1917.

Mr. Towers was a kind and affectionate father, a good neighbor and industrious man, carrying on much of the work on his farm until a few years ago, and was liked and respected by a large circle of friends.

There remain to mourn his departure, two sons and three daughters, (George, of Prattville, Mich., Mrs. Lettie Rutledge, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Mrs. Addie DuRoy, at home, Mrs. Clara Bailey, of Homer, Mich., and Willis, of Cadillac, Mich.,) also twenty-three grandchildren, fifty-one great-grand children, and four great-great-grand children.

The funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Buckeye Church of God, near his home, of which he was a charter member, and were conducted by Rev. John Clark, and the interment at the Burt Cemetery.

Fowers to the Surgeons Every Morning for a long time & was Excused from duty - He was not taken to hospital because he did not like the idea of leaving the Co as long as we was laying in Camp. He was able to care for himself as long as his tent mates done his cooking & washing - He began to do duty the latter part of Apr or the first May & he was a good & faithful soldier on the Atlanta Campaign. Many times doing duty while he had a wound to have been in the hospital he was one of those men who never complained but always went when Ordered. We think that I hear some of the Examiners saying how does that old Chap remember so much of this man Fowers - Will you that question he was the last man that I enlisted and the women part of the family made me promise that I would look after Eddy if he was sick. I agreed to do so as far as laid in my power. He was one of these good honest fellows & I took a liking for him - Have met him but a few times since we left the service. ~~Am looking over what I have written & find that I have omitted one thing that I want to have stated~~ On the Atlanta Campaign he complained of Piles he had the Doctor had - like many of the men in Shermans Army in the summer of 1864 Respectfully yours

Dear Sir In reply to yours of Apr 30 in regard to Eddy Fowers an applicant for Pension would say that I enlisted said Fowers in Feb^r of 1864 when home on Veteran furlough at that time I thought him to be one of as healthy looking men as was recruited for the Co. when we was at home. He joined the Company about the first of March 1864 - He like most recruits soon got on the sick list. I have this to say for him he was to gritty for his own good he was determined not to report to the Surgeon - According to a Memorandum kept by me at the time I find that Co. H. 38th O.V.D. was sent out on picket on the morning of March and that about Midnight it began to snow & by morning the snow was about 8 inches deep and the men suffered fearfully we was relieved about 9 A.M. Fowers with others was sick - He had a severe attack of Rheumatism. I was 1st Surgt of the Co. at that time & took

Dear Roena,

Thank you for the wonderful information. The pictures are great. As you can see that I have now have a computer. Not that I am able to use it to my advantage. I spend more time trying to figure out what to do, how can I do it, and beep you can't do this, more than any thing else. I don't believe this is going to come out just as I want it to but won't know until I print it.

I haven't written to Lynda Vredenburg for quite some time. My fault. This year the garden and fruit trees gave more than ever. So that means more canning and jams, etc.

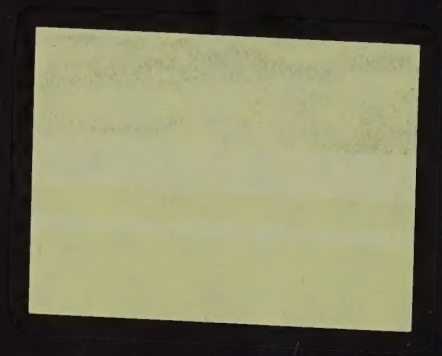

We have had lots of work also. To day it is raining so I have a chance to use this thing. I finally got the taxes done and off to the accountant. Big job done!! The room that this thing is in , is in the back of the house where not much heat is and it is cold here. We don't heat all the rooms where we don't use often. I guess I need a little heater to help solve this problem so I will use it more.

I have purchased some World Family Tree programs on C.D.'s for my computer. I have found some information on the few that I have.

I got a copy of the Cemetery Records of Hillsdale County, Michigan, for the towns of Ammboy, Camden, Ransom, Woodbridge and Wright, 1987. There are 55 pages to this directory and there are many of our relatives in this book. Almost every page has some one from ours families.

The lady that has been doing my research, has retired and moved to Florida. I have written again and requested some more information on the Colpetzer-Calbetzer-Colbetzer line for which there is several listing in this cemetery but so far only one person is working in the library in that area and she is in her 80's. She wrote back and said as soon as she could she would do the reseach for me. That was 5 months ago. It would be nice to be able to spend an entire summer in that area to do mine own reseach. It wouldn't be to bad if my husband could fine a nice lake and we could bring our boat . I would feel to guilty spending that time there.

mEH

We haven't decided what we are going to do this summer yet. West Virginia, Utah or Oregon and Washington, for our trip. Utah is always a trip to the library. I was able to get about 5 hours in. There is so much there to do that you get lost just begining. A definte plan is necessary. That always doesn't work when you fine something you don't expect and you just have to investgate that line too.

Well I guess I have bored you to death, so I will stop and hope I have sent you some of the right information that you have asked for. Thanks for everything.

Sincerely,

Barde Cross

Roena,

Carol Cross of Banning, California, sent me your name and address and indicated you might have information on the Towers ancestors that could help me. I particularly interested in information about Esther Towers (b. Oct 1822 and d. July 10, 1861) who married Isaac Newhouse in Salt Creek Township, Pickaway County, Ohio, on June 17, 1842. Do you have any information on Esther's parents and ancestors?

Your help would be greatly appreciated. Thanks.

Dear Rona -

Thank you so much for all the wonderful information that you sent. The picture Al Towers is Eddy Alvin Towers. His father being Eddy Tower & mother Elizabeth Fickle. ^{Do you have a different picture of Eddy Towers. It may be his father.}

Thanks also for pictures of John William Towers Sr & son Clare E. Towers headstone. I really appreciate them. I have been trying to find out information about the children of Eddy & Elizabeth Towers and any other Towers members. If you should have any information on any "Towers" member I would appreciate the information.

The map of Jefferson was really amazing having the families names on it.

I didn't have a picture of Elizabeth Fickle Towers. Thank you.

Thank you for a different copy of the "Marylander" reunion. I wrote to

I got an answer or two from Bernice Werdu Mc Kames then the letters came back no address known. Is Normagene Ely available to write to?

A picture of Isaac Elias would be wonderful.
Most of my family history is ~~not~~ weaving in & out of more family. Wish I could spend time there. An ^{hour} or 2 wasn't enough at Jacque's this summer. We were able to share some information. She has helped a lot. I wish I was able to give you more information,
I am still searching & hope to find more.
I have done better on the "Standisk" line for Capt Myles Standisk. I am also doing my husband's lines as well & sometimes get them mixed up. I will take this information and research the family lines farther toward our times as I now know where to look.

Thanks

We Marylander Reunion

"We Marylanders" held their second annual reunion last Wednesday on the banks of Leatherwood on the Vaus farm, upon the historic spot where 64 years ago Tillman Vaus built a small cabin. This reunion includes the descendants of a little colony, who, 75 years ago, shook the white sassafras sand of the slaved-cursed eastern shores of Maryland and turned their faces to the gloomy woods of Northwest.

Of that home seeking company were Tillman Warren and his sons Peter, James, John, Charles and Thomas and several daughters; John Warren, the patriarch of the band, and his sons William, John and Solomon and daughters Nancy, Mary, Rebecca, Rhoda and Elizabeth; Aaron Lister, the young husband of Nancy Warren, Tillman Vaus, a nephew of John and Tillman Warren; Emery Towers and his sister Elizabeth. Of these, John Warren who was lame and old, was the only one who rode all the way. On foot they courageously climbed the eastern slope of the Blue Ridge and looked longingly toward Ohio. They settled first in Pickaway county and soon found their "Rehoboth".

Of Tillman's sons, Peter soon earned a small home and by diligence and economy "bought all the land adjoining him". John and James put all their Ohio earned dollars in Illinois prairie land, near Galesburg. Charles, the student, lived a pioneer M.E. preacher in the Scioto Valley. Thomas contentedly kept the homestead farm. The daughters all were mothers of homes in Pickaway county.

Of the others, Tillman Vaus married Elizabeth Towers and in 1837 settled on the ground where this reunion was held. Emery Towers and wife came at the same time and built a home adjoining on the west. Soon after William, John and Solomon Warren, Aaron Lister and wife (Nancy Warren), John Hamet and wife (Rhoda Warren) came and built up homes in the wilds of Leatherwood.

In memory of these pioneers and to renew old friendships and to form new acquaintances, to keep alive the sentiment of kith and clan, ninety one of their descendants met and visited. They came from Indiana, from Michigan and Ohio. They visited, ate together a bountiful dinner under the shade of trees planted over 50 years ago by Grandpa Vaus and cared for by "Aunt Elizabeth".

The exercises were numerous - recitations from the little folks which were greatly enjoyed by all, many songs by those who could get near the organ where Miss Jennie Hamet presided and an address by Peter L. Warren. The dinner, songs, recitations and address were all "our own" and were enjoyed by all.

An election was held by which J.F. Hamet was made president; John Lister, vice president; Cecile Warren, secretary; John P. Vaus, Albert Dohm and Peter Warren the "get ready committee". Next Meeting to be held the third Wednesday of August 1902, at the home of John P. Vaus, Hillsdale, Michigan.
